Amvets Urge Palm Springs Rent Probe

State Session Seeks Inquiry Into Vets'
Project Charges

"Rents at Lienau Village cannot be reduced without the consent of city council, federal housing authority and California officials," said Barney Hinkle, chairman of the Palm Springs Housing Authority in answer to a demand for an investigation of rents charged World War II veterans at the public housing project on East Ramon road.

The demand was embodied in a resolution adopted by executive committee of Amvets at Fresno Saturday.

UNANIMOUS REPORT of the Amvets state housing committee pointed out that World War II veterans are paying $65 and $75 per month in rent in Palm Springs as compared to $37.50 to $42.50 in comparable quarters in other parts of the state.

Hinkle, in explaining the position of the local housing authority, said the operation of Lienau Village is a matter of public record and a statement of costs will be given to any qualified organization.

HE ADDED that rent schedules were determined after consultation with the California finance office, federal housing authority and office of price administration.

"California has a $300,000 investment in the housing project," declared Hinkle, "and the site is privately owned property for which a $1 per year rental is paid."

He added that amortization of the entire state loan must take place within the six-year lease granted by the city to the housing authority which in turn automatically sets the rental rate.

"ANY CHANGE in the local rates can only be accomplished with the permission of council, state of California and Federal housing agency," declared Hinkle.

Informing that Amvets Housing Chairman William O'Sullivan had been in the Village on an inspection tour of Lienau Village, Hinkle declared that he was never contacted and that the records of operation would have been explained.

The time is near
To plant the lawns,
Winning breezes
Will be scented.
And bring to mind
Clams, mussels, prawns
And the wish the Town was vented.

Still, who am I and the rest of us, to object to a little perfume of a doubtful charm? ... The greater the smell, the greener the lawn, seems to be the theory ... Think how pleasing to the eye that which is now not exactly pleasant to the nose will be ... All of which reminds me of a contribution last Fall about this time of the year:

Methinks,
It smells.

WANT TO HAND IT to the Thousand Palms chamber of commerce ... They staged a chicken dinner the other night which was remarkably good ... But the most remarkable part of it was that they served fried chicken WITHOUT the usually inseparable mashed potatoes, peas and carrots ... They topped it off with chocolate cake a la mode ... Do you wonder how I got that way? ... But the la mode was in keeping ... The banquet was in celebration of the fact that the FSP had changed the name of the depot there from Edom to Thousand Palms ... In other words, Edom went into reverse and Edom spelled backwards is "Mode."

AFTER THE SHOW at Hidden Springs ranch, Harry Oliver, whose activities have kept Thousand Palms in the public eye for years, put on a show of his own at his Desert Rat Circus ... Guests at the banquet went to Fort Oliver and had their words recorded for posterity and for later broadcast ... That tape will have to be edited ... George Hanson, general passenger traffic manager for the FSP made a little speech ... In it he mentioned his introduction to Thousand Palms ... It happened when he had to stop there because his automobile broke down ... And he's the man who is responsible for that slogan: "Next time try the train." ... Says he will, some time.

Cleto Narrowly Escapes Being Clapped in the Klink

Cleto, year-old, cocker spaniel, was hailed out of jail by her owner, Bob Benish, for the fourth time Friday but it was a little different this time.

Picked up on the street for vagrancy by Officer Ray King, Cleto, much against her will, was taken to the police station and booked.

At the desk the forlorn pup, yelping for her master, to "come and do something about this mess I'm in," had a thorough identification check-up and was paw-printed and mugged by Officer Dale Thompson.

Later Bob Benish, tobacco-store operator, came and got Cleto out of jail before Judge E. E. Theriault got around to her case and put her in the dog-house for sure.

New Sanitary Code Subject Of Village Cafe Men Today

Village restaurant owners will meet with Dr. Robert Westphal, county health officer, at Palm Springs Health Center, East Amado road, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to discuss a new system of rating sanitary conditions in local eating places.

Operators and managers of all restaurants, bars and cafes in the vicinity of Palm Springs are invited to attend and hear inspectors Dr. O. R. McRory, Jack Burzell, Glen Vargas and others explain the use of a restaurant sanitation check-list recently adopted by the county health department. The list provides for grading the separate items inspected in each restaurant, and using the sum of such grades to determine the sanitary rating of the establishment.

Specimens of the new inspection form will be distributed at the meeting so restaurant people will have opportunity to review and discuss the separate items with health department inspectors.

His meeting results from recommendations made by the restaurant operators who, selected by their chambers of commerce, met with health department personnel in Riverside, September 24, to lay plans for improved food sanitation in the county. Palm Springs marks the first city to have completed arrangements for such a meeting.

Similar ones will follow at later dates in other county cities.

Chamber of commerce, health department and representatives of the restaurant operators instrumental in planning the meeting urge good attendance, believing that many of the questions which might otherwise arise concerning the new system of restaurant inspection will be answered at the meeting.

Final Details Being Drawn For Clean Up

District Chairmen
To Meet This Week
On Nov. 6-13 Drive

Bob Bennett, Palm Springs Beautification committee chairman, will call District Coordinators John Corvill and district chairmen together within a few days to put the final touches on a Fall clean-up program scheduled for next month.

Original plans to stage the drive this month before Western Week and the influx of visitors to that event and the Menswear convention, had to be abandoned in favor of the November dates because of the time element.

DATES FOR THE FALL clean-up were fixed as Nov. 6 to 13 at a meeting of the executive board last Thursday evening. Present to discuss the program were Bennett, William Alworth, representing the city; Mrs. Billy Moseley, vice-chairman; Roland Vaile, Michael Allen and Harry Harper, secretary. Harper presented his resignation due to pressure of other business. He will manage the Riverside community chest drive which will be in progress at the time of the clean-up campaign in November.

Bennett pointed out that the dates for the Fall clean-up cover two week-ends and a holiday.

THAT WILL PROVIDE Villagers who cannot otherwise spare the time, three days in which to clean up around their premises, he said.

The city will take care of the streets but will not clean up private property said Bennett. Their work will be from curb to curb only and where there are no curbs, from gutter to gutter.

CITY TRUCKS, as in the past drives, will co-operate by hauling away accumulated rubbish. This service, at a nominal charge, may be obtained by dialing the waste disposal department.

Bennett said that public spots such as the triangle where Ramon road, Indian avenue and Palm Canyon drive come together, the gateway to the city at the north, and other small park spots which belong to no one will be assigned to various civic clubs which have agreed to take over these tasks.

DISTRICT CHIEFS will meet with Bennett and Connell this week to discuss plans for the clean-up by districts.

Chairman of these districts are Bill Leonese, district 1; Wally Waring, Joe Welmas, Madge Holerman, district 2; Homer Jenkins, district 3; Bob Hargis, district 4; Keith Herbert, district 5 and Cliff Halstead, district 6 and 7.

An inquiry into the social and economic causes of crime and delinquency will be the purpose of an all-day public meeting of Governor Warren's crime study commission with the board of supervisors next Thursday, October 7, in the board chambers at the county courthouse.

County law enforcement officers, the district attorney and probation officer, and other department heads, will also discuss with commission representatives which additional legislation is needed, according to Board Chairman Walter Pitman.

Dr. Arlen Johnson, chairman of the commission, will be present for the meeting, which is set for 10 a. m. Frank E. Cane, executive officer of the state board of corrections, and I. J. Shain, commission field representative, will also be present.

Joe Henderson, head of the Young Republics club of Palm Springs and a member of the county central committee, attended a committee meeting at Riverside last week at which time Donald Button, Dewey Warren financial chairman for southern California, explained the financial set-up for the drive.

Money contributed to the campaign is used for two purposes, maintenance of a permanent republican organization and meeting current county, state and national campaign expenses.

Republicans met here last night at the Fiesta House on the Desert Inn grounds to hear Dorothy Hall, county chairman, and Phillip L. Boyd, southern California chairman for the Dewey-Warren campaign.

Reports on the past year's activity will be heard. Present officers are Hilton McCabe, chairman, Mrs. Harold Lienau, vice-chairman; Charles Henderson, treasurer; Robert Peterson, vice-treasurer and Mrs. Gentry, who has been secretary of the organization for the past five years.

Playground Program Put Into Effect

School Facilities
To be Open Daily
In Recreational Plan

Marking another step in the program to meet the ever-expanding recreational needs in Palm Springs, Mrs. Eileen Carey, principal of Frances S. Stevens school, yesterday said playground facilities of the Palm Canyon drive school would be thrown open daily to children of elementary school age.

Hours were announced as from 3 to 5 p. m. on school days and from 9 a. m. to noon Saturdays.

SEVERAL PALM SPRINGS youth organizations already have expressed their intention of utilizing the supervised playground.

Mrs. B. H. Poliak and Mrs. David E. Bond, Girl Scout executives have mapped out a weekly program for the Brownies, Junior counterparts of the Girl Scouts. Phillip Hilton and Walt Pagan, newspaper distributors, will use the playground for recreational activities for their carriers. Hilton will direct his carriers to report to the playground to receive their papers prior to delivery.

Frank Partridge, Jr., well known for his successful pioneer work in Village youth activities, also signified his willingness to cooperate with the new program.

RECREATIONAL DIRECTOR in charge of the playground, Vernon E. Howeth, urges parents to encourage their children to attend the playground activities. Children between the ages of 6 and 14 years may be left on the playground while parents attend to their shopping.

A complete program and calendar of future events will be announced at a later date. Additional information may be obtained by dialing 2232, Frances S. Stevens school.

Speedy Work Nabs Suspect In Check Case

Eulice Rogers 25, is in custody awaiting arraignment because of two deputy sheriffs from the substation at Banning did some speedy work Saturday.

According to Lt. Fred Pratt and Rogers passed a check for $75 with a Beaumont merchant. The merchant checked with the Bank of America in Palm Springs immediately after Rogers left his place of business. The next call was to the sheriff's substation, because no account could be found at the bank under the name of Eulice Rogers, the sheriff's reported.

Rogers was picked up in front of the Palm Springs Drug and Import company. Taken to his apartment, a receipt for $100 in merchandise from one of the local stores in town was found among his effects. A telephone call to the business establishment revealed that the merchandise had been purchased with a check too.

Rogers is in the Riverside jail awaiting arraignment in the Beaumont justice court.

From Here to Colorado
Is Carrying Joke Too Far

A joke is a joke but when it stretches from Desert Hot Springs to Montrose, Colorado, resulting in the arrest and detention of a friend, that's something else again.

At least that was the opinion of Detective Durman Ordway and Sheriff Sutton of the Colorado county.

The story started when Sheriff Sutton received what he believed was a telegraphic warrant from Palm Springs police department asking the arrest of John Eddington in Montrose. Eddington was picked up and held and like all conscientious police officials, Sheriff Sutton telephoned Palm Springs police, reporting the capture.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—A lot says Danny Danzinger, co-owner of the Hitching Post. 14 Villagers Pay Penalty— They Forget to Remember

Forgetfulness set back 14 Villagers Friday. They forgot that it was October 1, that the 1948-49 season was officially on and that there was a one-hour parking limit on Palm Canyon drive and adjacent thoroughfares.

They thought that it was still summer and that they could park willie-nilly which is the way most people do park.

But Bob White, police officer assigned to the traffic problem and astride the three-wheeler motorcycle, had his orders.

THE SUMMER SIESTA is over, said Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann. "The season is here and so are the automobiles. The one-hour parking limit on Palm Canyon, Andreas and Amado is going to be enforced and strictly." Prior to October 1, White and other police officers distributed polite reminders to autoists, setting forth that on and after October 1 the one-hour parking law was going to be enforced to make room for more people to park down town.

"They had plenty of warning. They just forgot," said the chief yesterday.

TICKET NO. 1, series 1948-49, went to Danny Danzinger. The victim said he had an excuse. He's co-owner of the Hitching Post and was probably influenced by the name when he left his auto hitched a little bit too long.

"Sorry," said White. "Orders are orders. I don't make the rules, you know."

According to Chief of Police Kettmann, the one-hour parking limit will be strictly observed all season.

"There are just too many automobiles in town to let any one person use a parking place all day long or even for a part of day—more than an hour. Enforcement of the ordinance is one solution of our parking problem," the chief said.

at Barbecue for Water Survey Tour

Southern California congressmen, representatives of Colorado River Board of California, Metropolitan Water District and officials of nearby communities, rallied at the Mashie Court of the Desert Inn Sunday night to enjoy a barbecue dinner and rest at mid-stage of a junket around the southland and along the route of water developments.

The gathering here was an informal one as the law-makers and other guests relaxed after a strenuous two-day ride.

UNDER DIRECTION of Frank Bogert, head of a special chamber of commerce committee, the dinner at the Mashie Court was a huge success with Johnny Boyle and his wife not only preparing the meal but also furnishing the excellent entertainment thereafter.

Congressmen who stayed over at the Desert Inn Sunday night and who were present at the dinner were Willis M. Bradley, Long Beach; Chet Hollifield, Los Angeles; Donald L. Jackson, Santa Monica; John Phillips, Banning; Norris Poulson, Los Angeles.

FOUR OTHER congressmen on the official jaunt, took off for their homes and other engagements and rejoined the party here Monday morning for a continuation of the tour.

Other guests included Senator Nelson Dilworth, Hemet; Assemblyman John Babbage, Riverside; Assemblyman Phil Boyd, Riverside; Supervisor James I. Easley, Palm Springs; mayors of Indio, Banning and Beaumont, chamber of commerce officials of those cities, and Coachella Valley water district officials.

Recovers Purse, Papers, No Cash

Harold L. Phelps, 1805 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, reported to police Saturday at 8 a. m. that his wallet containing $25 and valuable papers was lost in the 300 block on North Palm Canyon. Thirty minutes later the personal affects, minus the money, and wallet were found on the opposite side of the street strewn across the sidewalk.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner by OLIVER B. JAYNES

WHILE NEGLECTING VITAL DEFENSES, our federal government is squandering billions of dollars on scores of overlapping and, in many cases, outmoded agencies. What is worse, more are being added to the federal payroll every day. Enough money is being wasted on needless bureaus to rebuild Alaskan defenses now overgrown with weeds. Our people wouldn't mind their heavy federal tax if they knew that a fair share of it was going to strengthen the security program.

Governor Dewey says there's going to be the greatest untangling of governmental agencies in history if he is elected president. He has a big task to start next January 20 if he is to be the next president. There are 80,000 MORE persons on the federal payroll than at the peak of World War II—not including Army, Navy and Air Force civilian personnel.

The Congressional joint committee on reduction of non-essential Federal expenditures reveals in a report this almost unbelievable set-up of agencies and departments:

22 agencies operating in 11 departments are concerned with housing.

29 agencies operating in 20 departments are concerned with statistics.

14 agencies operating in 12 departments are concerned with surplus property.

27 agencies operating in 14 departments are concerned with labor relations.

16 agencies operating in 8 departments are concerned with waterpower power.

22 agencies operating in 16 departments are concerned with insurance.

21 agencies operating in 10 departments are concerned with transportation.

93 agencies operating in 17 departments are concerned with government lending.

37 agencies operating in 22 departments are concerned with foreign trade.

46 agencies operating in 28 departments are concerned with investigations.

27 agencies operating in 16 departments are concerned with employment and unemployment.

302 agencies operating in 47 departments are concerned with national defense.

64 agencies operating in 32 departments are concerned with business relations.

All the while the 260 billion dollar national debt is hanging over our head, very little being set aside for retirement. We find many people who say they wouldn't complain about heavy taxes—nor advocate tax reduction—if the money was being spent wisely. You can't blame anyone for complaining about paying half of their income over to the federal government only to see it squandered in agencies, many of which hinder rather than help his business enterprise.

Cities Favor Southwest's Application

With Western Air Lines expecting to serve Palm Springs with passenger service starting October 15, a concerted move on the part of 16 California and Arizona cities will be made at a meeting to be held in Riverside November 8, to support the application of Southwest Airways for the right to extend its flights to those communities.

Expected to be present at the meeting from Palm Springs are City Manager William E. Alworth and Mayor Charley Farrell. City council, along with Palm Springs chamber of commerce, is officially on record as supporting the application of Southwest Airways. This action was taken October 15, 1947, at a regular meeting of council.

Last week several city officials and others interested in the airline feeder service of Southwest Airways, met in Riverside and passed a resolution asking the Citrus Belt division of the League of California Cities to support establishment of the airline service to Riverside, Hemet, Banning, Beaumont, Yuma and Phoenix.

City Manager Alworth is of the opinion that the Citrus Belt is already on record supporting the application of Southwest Airways.

Police Discovery Convinces School It Was Robbed

Discovery of nine gallons of paint and a new window in the reservation home of Lonnie Sheppard by police, was the first knowledge St. Theresa school officials had that the institution had been burglarized.

Detective Durman Ordway, who had been questioning Sheppard regarding the alleged theft of $100 from the hotel room of a Village visitor, and again about a keg of nails in the suspect's home, also found the paint and window in Sheppard's home.

Sheppard claims he purchased the nails, window and paint from a stranger. Investigation revealed that the nails were sold to a construction company, which never missed them until notified by Ordway. The same was true in the case of the paint, window, and numerous pieces of dinnerware and linens, the latter items identified as belonging to a prominent hotel where Sheppard was employed at the time of his arrest.

Sheppard is in city jail serving a sentence for violation of the city's rooming house ordinance.

Thousand Palms Prepares For Bigger Things to Come

If enthusiasm counts for anything, Thousand Palms will be the biggest spot on the Southern Pacific between Phoenix and Los Angeles within a few years—biggest town right on the railroad, that is.

Thursday night the Thousand Palms chamber of commerce held its first annual banquet and played host to Southern Pacific railroad officials, citizens from neighboring communities and townsmen and women. There were 75 present at the affair, presented in the Hidden Springs ranch club house.

THE OCCASION marked the celebration of the change of the depot name from Edom to Thousand Palms. The post office there changed its name from Edom to Thousand Palms more than a year ago and the Edom school will become the Thousand Palms school at the next meeting of the Palm Springs Unified school district board.

Col. George L. Dickey, president of the Thousand Palms chamber, presided at the dinner and introduced the guests. George Hanson, general traffic manager of the S. P. V. F. Frizzell, general freight traffic manager, H. R. Gernich, superintendent and George Brown, district freight and passenger traffic manager. Others introduced and who gave brief talks included James I. Easley, fourth district supervisor, Katherine Finchy of the school district, E. E. Oertel, high school principal, George McCarthy of Hidden Springs ranch, R. F. Graettinger of The Desert Sun, Harry Oliver, veteran showman, Desert Rat Scrapbook publisher, and the community's most ardent publicist, O. A. Torgeson, Cathedral City. A. C. COL. DICKEY TOLD of the vast development of the area in the past two years, the many new homes and businesses, the sharp increase in shipment of agricultural products and the general expansion of the area.

The Southern Pacific officials pledged their aid in Thousand Palms' continued growth and the meeting closed on a high note of enthusiasm and optimism.

Prior to the dinner which was prepared and served under the supervision of Mrs. McGabb, guests met at the Robertson home in Shangrila Palms for cocktails.

Supervising the entire affair and carrying it off with a bang was Secretary Peacock, Thousand Palms realtor.

Workmen on Hot Seat in Morongo

Workmen, installing new water mains in Morongo Valley last week fired brush with their acetylene torches. Their protective glasses prevented them from seeing the flames behind them until they had to jump.

In the meantime, the state forestry department had been notified but before they got there, the brush fire was quelled by volunteers and the state truck turned back by word via radio.

Fire Prevention Reminders Given By Village Chief

This is fire prevention week and Fire Chief Bill Leonoso of Palm Springs again reminded Villagers yesterday that a little precaution before is worth a thousand-fold the loss in money, time and the worry after a fire.

It's a lot easier to prevent a fire than stop one, he said. President Truman proclaimed the week of Oct. 3 to 9 as fire prevention week in the nation and fire chiefs and firemen are co-operating and urging the public to co-operate to the fullest extent.

"HERE IN PALM SPRINGS we bank a lot on adequate fire prevention," the chief said. "One of our men, Warren Heath, is fire marshal and makes periodic inspections to see that fire prevention laws are followed. He has the power to enforce them, too, but would rather call attention to fire hazards and see that they are removed than to sign a warrant."

"All it takes to prevent fires is common sense and ordinary care. Don't let rubbish accumulate, don't just guess that your electrical appliances and connections are in good shape, don't be careless with matches, cigarettes, cigars. Don't pile greasy rags in a dark corner and forget them. Fires can start in a score of different ways—most of them man-made and due to carelessness. Just a little extra precaution can save a lot of money, time and mental anguish."

"BE CAREFUL during fire prevention week and all of the rest of the weeks and we'll maintain our excellent record. "And, besides, insurance rates are lower where the people watch out to prevent fires."

When he isn't mending fences, the average politician is putting up lightning rods.—Jim Farley's story.

J. E. Collins New Red Cross Head For County Area

J. E. Collins of Riverside is the new chairman of the Riverside county Red Cross chapter succeeding Mrs. Edith D'Eliscu, well known in Palm Springs, who resigned after many years of service and refused to be a candidate for re-election.

During the years of World War II and in the reconstruction years since, Mrs. D'Eliscu has won wide recognition as chairman of the county chapter.

FORMER TREASURER of the chapter, the new chairman, Collins, has also gained wide prominence for Red Cross work in the county and the chapter board is confident of continued progress.

Mrs. D'Eliscu was presented with a watch as tribute to her years of service. She entered chapter work as junior Red Cross chairman.

CONGRESSMAN John Phillips made the chief address of the day, praising the Red Cross for its work of mercy.

Reports of county activities were heard.

It was the 50th annual meeting of the county chapter and representing the Palm Springs branch at the meeting was Hilton McCabe, local chairman.

Supervisors Talk Over Daylight Time, Drop It

Daylight time is a hot potato.

Board of supervisors this week picked it up and, as quickly, dropped it.

Supervisor Ed Hill said the board should do something about daylight time. Take a stand against it, he urged. Supervisor James Easley declared daylight time isn't saving any electricity and that he hates to think of the school children starting out for their daily lessons in the dark.

But Chairman W. V. Pittman called attention to the fact that many organizations had protested continuance of daylight time without success and that he didn't think Riverside county's voice would make any difference. The board dropped the matter then and there.

Like Jack's
Beanstalk

One of the amazing developments of the post-war period is the way the demand for telephone service shot upward. Like Jack's beanstalk, it grew and grew and it keeps right on growing at astonishing speed.

It seems that almost everyone in the nation wants a telephone, and in Southern California the demand for service is particularly lively. During the past twelve months we spent more than $1,750,000 on new construction, added some 12,000 telephones with a net gain of about 6,000, and yet new applications keep coming in so fast we have nearly as many on our books today as we had a year ago.

To fulfill the ever-increasing requirements of this community and to provide better telephone service than ever before, we are going ahead with our expansion program as fast as the availability of equipment and skilled workers permit.

Joy Arkelian, Charles Riley, Plight Troth

First fashionable wedding of the season took place Sunday at Palm Springs Community church when Miss Joy Arkelian, radiantly beautiful in her bride's attire, walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, Aram, to exchange vows with Charles D. Riley, 22-year-old Navy veteran.

The bride was dressed in beige suit of gaberdine, wearing a royal blue hat, and carrying a corsage of white and blue flowers. The maid of honor, Mary Cornman, Palm Springs high school classmate of the bride, was attired in a brown crepe dress and carried a corsage of pink and blue blossoms.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James H. Blackstone, Jr., officiating. John Redding of Palm Springs was best man.

The wedding was witnessed by a large group of friends and relatives from Palm Springs, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Fresno, the summer home of the Arkelian family.

Among those present was K. Arkelian, grandfather of the bride. He made the trip to Palm Springs from San Francisco particularly for the wedding although he had not planned to open his home on Tamarisk road until next month.

Mrs. Riley was reared in Palm Springs as was her husband and both are graduates of Palm Springs high school. He is 22 years of age and is employed in Los Angeles. Mrs. Riley is 18.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride, 1285 Buena Vista drive. The newly married couple left for a honeymoon at Santa Barbara and plan to make their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Davis' Sister Is Guest in Village

On her way back to Detroit, Michigan last week was Mrs. D. Lile Eife after spending two days as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur P. Davis at the Colonial House. The hostess and visitor are sisters.

Mr. Eife, president of the Detroit Lions, professional football team, was unable to accompany his wife to Palm Springs following a game between his team and the Los Angeles Rams in Los Angeles.

Doing The Village With MOYA HENDERSON

The feminine ranks of the population was greatly increased last week with the birth of four little girls to Villagers.

Mary Martha Coffman started the parade early last Wednesday morning in San Diego. That same day Deborah DuBose put in her appearance at the Palm Springs Community Hospital. Since then the girls have taken over that nursery with the Harold Smith's baby daughter joining the ranks on Monday afternoon and the latest addition to the future pig tail parade is a daughter for the Ed Smith's.

A grand reunion took place last Saturday night when the young married set got together at the Doll House, then adjourned to the Palm House, to welcome home J. B. Emigh who parted company with Uncle Sam's Navy after a three year service record. He returned to the Village some three or four inches taller, it seems, than when he enlisted upon graduating from high school here. On hand to help him celebrate were the senior Emighs, sister Barbara and husband Bill Foster, Bob and Brud Delano, Norma and Smitty Smith, Mary Cornman and joining later were Ralph Galzerano, Don Whitehead and Bob Dart, down from Chaffey, and Tommy Peterson, home from Claremont College for Men.

ALSO SPOTTED at the Palm House the Barney Hinkles dining with Milt Hicks and Bill Bogess and Rudy and Jeri Himarck and Howard Gilbert stopping off en route to India after watching the defeat of Coachella's football team playing with Chino at Pomona. Got in a short greeting with Clarence and Juanita Bosworth who, since moving down the valley from Palm Springs, so seldom make an appearance up this way.

Villagers certainly get around. At the recent South American party round the pool at the Anandale Country Club the Oliver Jaynes, Lee Berings, Billy Maloufs and Paul Beldings were amongst those entering in the fun.

Marian and Charlie Mathews trekked into town last week-end to take in the UCLA-Northwestern football fracas with daughter Jean and Norm Nagel. The Nagels are planning on not missing a Bruin contest this fall as Norm's little brother Ray is first string halfback for the Westwood team.

NEWS FROM THE NORTH is that soon Bob Hoover, son of the H. Earl Hoovers of Smoke Tree Ranch, will tie the permanent knot in the near future with Bea Burroughs of Piedmont and a frequent Palm Springs winter visitor. Both Bob and Bea are in attendance at the University of California.

Harold and Hazel West wound up their September vacation this week and were ready to settle down to a long, hard winter after an automobile trip which took them up the coast to Portland, Oregon. Their plans almost received a setback when the gas shortage set in.

Villagers See Fashionettes

At a lady's fashion show sponsored by Fashionettes held in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills hotel with Brandy Brent, society editor of the Los Angeles Times acting as mistress of ceremonies, several Villagers were present.

Among those from Palm Springs were Mrs. Gladys Marco, Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf, S. A. Guiberson, Doctor and Mrs. Joseph D'Alessio, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belding, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ransom and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davies.

It was learned at the fashion show that Dr. Alessio has completed his medical office in Beverly Hills and is expected back in Palm Springs soon to complete plans for part time practice here.

First Snow Brings Olivers Back Home

First snow fell last Friday at Stateline, California in the Lake Tahoe district and convinced Mr. and Mrs. George T. Oliver that it was time to head for Palm Springs.

The couple completed their fifth year at the mountain resort as operators of a souvenir and drug-sundries store and their arrival here was the beginning of their 21st season in Palm Springs.

Live Dolls to Feature Doll Week at Doll House Oct. 9

For Doll House owner George Strebe, it's just one big week-end after another. October 9 he will be completely surrounded by big beautiful dolls, the king-size type that breathe and walk.

In commemoration of National Doll Week, October 4 to 11, the Doll House will be the scene of a glamorous doll contest. Heading the list of entries is Glamour Dorothy Ford, soon to be seen with John Wayne in MGM's "The Three Godfathers." To get the contest off to a flying start pretty 17-year-old Tenita Mantz will be flown here by her famous dad, Race Pilot Paul Mantz. Earl Carroll's entry is the lovely Mary Livingston, decked out in true desert style as a Cowgirl Doll. Making sure everything is fair and square, will be a board of judges consisting of MGM's little Margaret O'Brien, Baby Snooks' radio pappy Hanley Stafford, MBS' "Masked Spooner," and the new movie heart-throb, Dick Webb.

Wrestler Gorgeous George has announced his intentions of competing for the title, "Doll with the prettiest curls."

The lucky Queen for a Day winner of October 6 will also be present, a week-end to the Village being part of her royal prize.

All the contestants and judges will be the guests of the Rossmore Saturday night, where they can relax around the pool and gloat over their winnings Sunday.

Eastern Star Club Season Set in Motion

Programs and plans for the season were discussed when members of Palm Springs Eastern Star club met in initial session of the new year in the Lanai room of the Tennis club Thursday evening with Mrs. Harry Brott, president, in the chair.

Project for the club this season will be the purchase of a piano for the Order of the Eastern Star, to be used in the new Masonic Temple when it is built.

Regular luncheons will start the first Friday in November and will be held at the Chi Chi. A dinner honoring the Masons will be held at the Chi Chi October 19 at 7:30 p. m., the president announced.

The annual bridge event will be held at the Tennis club, date to be determined later.

Bank Building To be Started This Month

Contract for the construction of the new Bank of America building is expected to be let this month, Kenneth Colborn, president of the Palm Springs corporation builders, said Monday.

The building will be erected just south of the present bank building on North Palm Canyon drive on a site now occupied by three landmark buildings which will be moved away within the next ten days.

When completed the new bank building will provide double the facilities and floor space of the present Bank of America building.

County to Buy Indio Building

Documents are being prepared in Riverside to support a request that the building on the fair grounds at Indio which is now occupied by the county health clinic and other offices be sold to the county.

Now classified by the public housing authority as a temporary structure, the building is occupied on a month-to-month permit arrangement.

The transfer, if made, will be under a recent policy established by the PHA to provide facilities for local health department uses in communities where it has buildings available.

In the change the structure would be reclassified as "permanent."

September Building Mark Drops to $293,550 But October Off to Good Start

Building permits issued in September amounted to $293,550, according to figures released by the P. M. Swart, superintendent of building, Saturday.

September's total was only slightly above the lowest figure of the year, reported for April, when permits tallied $265,645.

IN MARCH THIS YEAR when permits valued at $421,555 were issued, the city's record of "every month a half-million dollar month" was ended. In almost two years, however, there have only been four months when the total dropped below the $500,000 figure, March, April, August and September, of 1948.

Figures for the first nine months of 1948 were $4,133,890 higher by $78,940 than the corresponding period in 1947 when they tallied $4,054,950.

Swart prefaced his remarks about building in September by saying that they were "very poor" but added that, considering the number of inquiries and the submittal of plans for study, building during October may take a spurt.

HE ADDED that on the first day of October seven permits, almost equal in value to the number issued the last two weeks of September, were issued. The October permits, said Swart, represent construction valued at $58,550 and include one dwelling, four swimming pools and one small-apartment hotel.

The hotel permit was issued to W. Freund for $27,000 and calls for the construction of one apartment and 6 adjoining hotel rooms opposite the Desert Retreat on North Indian avenue.

Indians Romp on San Jac To Take First Game, 12-0

Surprising even their most optimistic fans, Palm Springs high served notice on Riverside County league that it was through being pushed around in football by dumping a highly favored San Jacinto team 12 to 0 in the first game of the 1948 season Friday night.

More than 2000 fans were present at the local field to look on and marvel at the way Coach C. E. Ballagh's boys kept the game in hand.

IT WASN'T SO much the score that impressed the fans but the manner in which the Indians kept on top of the game.

They had San Jacinto under control most of the way. Outweighed by many pounds, Palm Springs gridders made up for it in spirit and in sticking to fundamentals.

As a result, the Indians range alongside of Beaumont and Hemet as the Big Three of the RCL this year.

COACH BALLAGH took three or four hold-overs from last year's squad, which finished far down in league competition, as a nucleus and built a smart team around them.

In the first period Halfback Davis, who weighs in at 145, broke loose and raced 70 yards into the end zone for six points. Later, Eddie Weiss, who starred in 1947 and looks like a repeater in 1948, flipped one to Cervantes who galloped the rest of the way. The play was good for 20 yards.

DISPLAYING FIGHT throughout, the Indians halted a San Jacinto threat in the fading moments of the game by intercepting a pass on their own three to end the visitors' drive.

Weiss, Lopez and Cervantes, three veterans from last year, stood out in Indian play but Ballagh's work so far in practice has brought up a lot of other boys and, as a team, the Indians are going to be trouble some the rest of the season.

Beaumont Trips Perris Gridders In 19-0 Upset

The underdogs made a day of it in Riverside county high school football circles Friday.

Besides the upset 12-0 win scored by Palm Springs over a strong San Jacinto team, Beaumont high dumped Perris, last year's Riverside County league champions, 19 to 0 last Friday at Beaumont. The Beaumont Cougars displayed a strong aerial attack in winning.

Running to form, Hemet tripped Banning high at Hemet 20-0 Friday in another league opener.

In non-league games Friday, St. Bernardino defeated Elsinore 7-0 and the strong Coachella Arabs won from Imperial, 19-6.

Paul Hunt Again Here for Season

Paul Hunt, well known Village artist, has returned for the season and is again doing those clever sketches and drawings which have been much in demand in past seasons.

Hunt has been a Villager for many years except for the four and a half years he was active in the war.

Confer on Resurfacing Of Palm Canyon Drive

A. Conrad, California department of highways, was here yesterday conferring with City Manager William Alworth on plans to re-surface Palm Canyon drive, a project contained in the highway department's 1949-50 budget.

Poultry and Egg Firm Opens Doors in Village

Palm Springs welcomed another industry today when the Palm Springs Poultry and Egg company opened for business at North Indian avenue and Oasis. The company is owned by E. Morning and H. Fritts. They will do a retail and wholesale business.

Los Angeles prices will prevail, they said, and a feature of the retail department will be a dressed-while-you-wait department. Customers will pick out the poultry they want and it will be dressed on the spot.

Morning and Fritts operate the Fontana Poultry Buyers in that southland poultry center and have been in the business for a number of years.

In Fontana they handle from 5,000 to 10,000 chickens a week.

Their product here will come directly from ranch to consumer.

They carry a complete line of red fryers, roasting hens, stewing hens, turkeys, broilers with a new modern plant enabling them to supply all hotels, restaurants and groceries daily in any amount.

They plan daily delivery service not only in Palm Springs but in surrounding communities.

STATE TO AID FLOOD WORK

Official state approval of Palm Springs application for financial assistance to repair flood damaged streets on a dollar for dollar matching basis, has been received by City Manager William E. Alworth.

Bradsher Plans To be Back Soon

Carl Bradsher, captain in World War II and national skeet expert, plans to return to Palm Springs soon to re-open his popular skeet club on East Ramon road.

Bradsher is now closing up summer of activities in Sun Valley after having been in North Carolina and Pennsylvania earlier in the summer.

Many notables in the industrial and entertainment world are pupils of Capt. Bradsher or try their skill at his club.

been gyped . . . Seems that when the new clamp-down on overtime parking went into effect Friday, police wanted a bit of publicity to impress upon the public that the way of the procrastinator is hard . . . If you put off moving your car too long, you move into court . . . Anyway, Danziger said he'd pose as victim No. 1 to get the idea over . . . While posing, he forgot to move his car . . . And got a real ticket . . . His defense plea is going to be that he was framed.

A FEW IDLE THOUGHTS while listening to G. Lombardo . . . People who get up early and steal other people's Sunday papers while the latter sleep in, had better have a care . . . With the way the price is going up, swiping a Sunday paper is going to step up out of the petty theft class . . . It'll be grand larceny soon . . . When the junior chamber of commerce paints that sign "Palm Springs" on the roof of a building at the airport to guide flyers, why don't they use this new Scotchlite paint? . . . With our brilliant desert stars, the sign would then be visible by night . . . They call it the Safety way but it's in a hurry to get some place the only safe way is to use the other side of the street . . . Too many people stop to debate their purchases on the sidewalk . . . It's a sight that keeps Joe Butler smiling . . . What are they going to do about double parking when parking meters are installed?

JOHN SINGER of the fire department has a snapshot that is one of those naturals . . . He stopped the other Sunday to take a picture of an auto wreck . . . When he developed the film he found that he had a good view of a truck crumpled like an accordion on one side of a tree . . . On the other side and prominent in the photo was a sign tacked to the tree: "Jesus Saves." . . . Comes a note from Los Compadres club this week: "The season is on—how about that Western attire each and every Saturday?" . . . The mail was no good this week . . . All nice things, no insults . . . I don't like that . . . I like being taken apart . . . It's so much fun putting myself together again.

AND DON'T FORGET to do your next Tuesday's banking next Monday . . . Tuesday is a holiday . . . It was 456 years ago that Columbus sailed the ocean blue . . . Also, don't forget . . . Four weeks from today you go to the polls and vote . . . Or be forever after silent on matters political.
